The indemnity contained in this paragraph (a) is independent of Tenant's insurance, (b) will not be limited by comparative negligence statutes or damages paid under the Workers' Compensation Act or similar employee benefit acts, (c) will survive the end of the term, and (d) will apply even if any injury is caused in whole or in part by the ordinary negligence or strict liability of Landlord but will not apply to the extent an injury is caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord.

1. Interfere with Tenant's possession of the Premises as long as Tenant is not in default.
2. Unreasonably withhold consent to a proposed assignment or sublease.

E. Landlord and tenant agree to the following:

Landlord may require that Tenant, at termination of this lease and at Tenant's expense, remove any physical additions and improvements, repair any alterations, and restore the Premises to the condition existing at the commencement date, normal wear excepted.
2. Abatement. Tenant's covenant to pay rent and Landlord's covenants are independent of each other. Tenant shall not be entitled to abate rent for any reason.

3. Release of Claims/Subrogation. Landlord and Tenant release each other from any claim, by subrogation or otherwise, for any damage to the Premises, the building, or personal property within the building, by reason of fire or the elements, regardless of cause, including negligence of Landlord or Tenant. This release applies only to the extent that it is permitted by law, the damage is covered by insurance proceeds, and the release does not adversely affect any insurance coverage.

4. Notice to Insurance Companies. Landlord and Tenant will notify the issuing insurance companies of the release set forth in the preceding paragraph and will have the insurance policies endorsed, if necessary, to prevent invalidation of the insurance coverage.

5. Casualty/Total or Partial Destruction. (a) If the Premises are damaged by casualty, Landlord has an option to restore or not to restore the Premises. If Landlord chooses not to restore, this lease will terminate. If Landlord chooses to restore, it will notify Tenant of the estimated time to restore and give Tenant an option to terminate this lease by notifying Landlord within ten days. If Tenant does not terminate this lease, it shall continue and Landlord shall restore the Premises as provided in (a) above. (b) To the extent the Premises are untenantable after the casualty and the damage was not caused by Tenant, the rent will be adjusted as may be fair and reasonable.

6. Condemnation/Substantial or Partial Taking. (a) If the Premises cannot be used for the purposes contemplated by this lease because of condemnation or purchase in lieu of condemnation, this lease will terminate. (b) If there is a condemnation or purchase in lieu of condemnation and this lease is not terminated, Landlord will, at Landlord's expense, restore the Premises, and the rent payable during the unexpired portion of the term will be adjusted as may be fair and reasonable. (c) Tenant will have no claim to the condemnation award or proceeds in lieu of condemnation.

7. Uniform Commercial Code. Tenant grants Landlord a security interest in Tenant's personal property now or subsequently located on the Premises. This lease is a security agreement under the Uniform Commercial Code. Landlord may file a copy of this lease as a financing statement. Tenant hereby appoints Landlord as its attorney-in-fact to execute on behalf of and in the name of Tenant such Uniform Commercial Code financing statements as necessary to perfect the security agreement.

8. Default by Landlord/Events. Default by Landlord is failing to comply with any provision of this lease within thirty days after written notice.

9. Default by Landlord/Tenant's Remedies. Tenant's remedies for Landlord's default are to (a) sue for damages, or in the alternative, (b) terminate this lease. The obligations and liability of Landlord shall be binding only upon the Premises but not on any other assets of Landlord. Tenant shall look solely to Landlord's interest in the Premises in pursuit of its remedies. The general assets of Landlord, its directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives shall not be subject to levy, execution, or other enforcement or collection procedures for satisfaction of the remedies of Tenant.

10. Default by Tenant/Events. Defaults by Tenant are (a) failing to pay timely rent, (b) abandoning or vacating more than 25% of the Premises, or (c) failing to comply within thirty days after written notice with any provision of this lease other than the defaults set forth in (a) and (b) above.

11. Default by Tenant/Landlord's Remedies. Landlord's remedies for Tenant's default are to (a) enter and take possession of the Premises, after which Landlord may relet the Premises on behalf of Tenant and receive the rent directly by reason of the reletting, and Tenant agrees to reimburse Landlord for any expenditures made in order to relet and any deficiency after reletting; (b) enter the Premises and perform Tenant's obligations in which event Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all costs and expenses incurred by Landlord together with interest upon said sums at an annual rate equal to nine (9) percent per annum payable on demand and recoverable as additional rent; or (c) terminate this lease by written notice and sue for damages. Landlord may enter and take possession of the Premises by self-help, by picking or changing locks if necessary, and may lock out Tenant or any other person who may be occupying the Premises, until the default is cured, without being liable for damages.

12. Default/Waiver/Mitigation. It is not a waiver of default if the nondefaulting party fails to declare immediately a default or delays in taking any action. Pursuit of any remedies set forth in this lease does not preclude pursuit of other remedies in this lease or provided by law. Landlord and Tenant have a duty to mitigate damages.

13. Ad Valorem Tax Deposit.

A. N/A.

B. Upon execution of this Lease, Tenant shall deposit with Landlord the Ad Valorem Tax Deposit. Said deposit shall not accrue interest. Landlord may upon expiration or termination of this Lease use the deposit to pay the actually due, or hold for payment of estimated ad valorem taxes due or to become due upon the leased premises and for which Tenant is responsible under the Terms of this Lease. Provided Tenant pays all ad valorem taxes for which Tenant is responsible under this Lease, the deposit shall be refunded to Tenant at the address Tenant has given to Landlord for this specific purpose. If taxes have not been assessed and levied for the year in which this Lease expires or is terminated, Landlord may hold the deposit until said taxes have been determined; and, if Tenant does not pay said taxes at least 30 days before delinquency, Landlord may apply the deposit to the taxes due. Nothing in this subsection shall relieve Tenant of its obligation to pay ad valorem taxes upon the leased premises prior to delinquency as provided elsewhere in this Lease.

14. Holdover. If Tenant does not vacate the Premises following termination of this lease, Tenant shall be a tenant at will and shall vacate the Premises on receipt of notice from Landlord. No holding over by Tenant, whether with or without the consent of Landlord, will extend the term. The rent during any holdover period shall be one and half times the Base Rent.

15. Alternative Dispute Resolution. Landlord and Tenant shall submit in good faith to mediation before filing a suit for damages. Each party shall pay its own counsel fees and one-half of the mediators charges.

16. Attorney's Fees. If either party retains an attorney to enforce this lease, the prevailing party is entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees.

17. Choice of Law; Venue. This agreement shall be governed, construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas. Venue is in the county in which the Premises are located.

18. Entire Agreement. This lease, together with the attached exhibits and riders, if any, is the entire agreement of the parties, and there are no oral representations, warranties, agreements, or promises pertaining to this lease or to the expressly mentioned exhibits and riders not incorporated in writing in this lease.

19. Amendment of Lease. This lease may be amended only by an instrument in writing signed by Landlord and Tenant.
